

HULST & ADAMS' GREAT CLEARING SALE

Crockery, Queensware, Etc.

We expect to move into our new building, not later than October 15, and until then we have many bargains to offer, as we want to make room for our entirely new and large stock of Fancy China, plain and decorated, newest patterns in Cut Glass and a full line of everything new in Crockery, Glassware and Queensware.

Here are Just a Few of Them.

2 sets ONLY handsomely decorated Semi-Porcelain dinner set. Regular price, $72.50, present price, $10.00.

1 ONLY set same, regular price, $11.00, present price, $8.75. A few handsomely decorated pieces of Semi-Porcelain such as Creamers, Flatters, Plates, Water Pitchers, Vegetable dishes and others at 20 per cent off from regular prices, which will make them cheaper than the common white ware.

WAIT FOR OUR DRY GOODS.

Hulst & Adams IN THIS PLACE.

This is the time for the bargains named above.

If You are Looking for Either a
Base Burner, Steel Range,
Cook Stove or a Heater.....

OF ANY KIND, WE CAN SHOW YOU THE MOST COMPLETE LINE THIS SIDE of the MISSOURI RIVER.

Prices are lower than last season, from $2.75 up. We have the

Quick Meal Steel Range
IN SIX DIFFERENT PATTERNS.

This Range has no equal in STYLE, DURABILITY, CONVENIENCE or PRICE. We have a line of OIL HEATERS which is impossible to turn the wick too high and smoke. At

GRAY'S.

HEADQUARTERS

Columbia, Victor and Ideal buggies;
Mitchell and Old Hickory wagons;
Rock Island plows and cultivators;
Rock Island cornplanters;

Cadet cornplanters;

Little Engine, the new lister,

where the operator can see the corn drop while planting;

Jones' Lever binders;

Jones' Chain mowers;

Jones' Self-dump hay rakes;

Jones' Hand-dump hay rakes;

Walter A. Wood's mowers;

Woodman and Aermotor windmills;

Jack-of-all-Trades gasoline engines;

and all other machinery needed on the farm. Call and see for yourself. We wish your trade.

HENRY LUBKER,
THIRTEENTH STREET,
COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA.

Drs. NEWMAN & DASSLER,

EYE, EAR, NOSE AND THROAT SPECIALISTS

Dr. NEWMAN, the well-known Eye Specialist, is a graduate of the best schools in the country, and has been in the practice of medicine for over twenty years, successfully treating all diseases of the eye.

Dr. DASSLER, the celebrated Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialist, having received his degree in the field of Medicine for the past twelve years successfully treats all diseases of the ear, nose, and throat.

The Doctors have the means to correct all defects of the vision; cure and relieve headache, neuralgia, dizziness, etc.

The Doctors will fit all their patients with glasses, and the Doctor will fit all their patients with spectacles.

Columbus Journal.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1885.

Misfits for best photos

—Dr. Neumann, dentist, Thirteenth street, 1.

—Oak heating stove at Enders' Coal store, 2-3.

—Feet of all kinds constantly on hand at Dally's feed store.

—S. S. Mallister of Humphrey was in the city Thursday.

—Bring us your job work. We will endeavor to please you.

—Potatoes! Choice Minnesota potatoes at Gray's, 2.

—Make your own flowers! Call at Snow's and save the material.

—The brick work at the North opera house is nearing completion.

—Charles Taylor was badly engaged Saturday delivering fruit trees.

—Dr. C. H. Gleeson, dentist, in Barber block, Thirteenth street, 1.

—Attorney Drake of Humphrey was in the city Thursday on business.

—Mrs. E. H. Chambers, who has been very sick the past week, is improving.

—Lee Rollins returned home Friday from his trip with the gorgy-round.

—For fine, watch repairing, call on Carl Frosch, 11th St., Columbus, Neb.

—Mrs. Marys, Evans & Goss, office three doors north of Fritch's store, 1.

—Chicago Inter Ocean and Columbus Journal, one year, in advance $1.75.

—Mrs. C. J. Garlow will entertain friends Thursday and Friday afternoon.

—Do not fail to see our 6-foot galvanized steel mill for $325.00. A. Dusell & Son, 1.

—Miss Jessie Shannon began teaching her first school south of the river, Monday.

—Mr. and Mrs. August Wardenius on Thursday last lost by death their infant son, aged four hours.

—Dr. McKeon's method of making aluminum plated plates there on an equality with gold.

—Dr. Arnold has been appointed to succeed Dr. Baker as one of the commissioners of intensity.

—Miss Emma Dawson is slowly gaining strength from her long serious illness of many months' duration.

—A new brick sidewalk on the north side of the block where Way & Fairchild and Henry Kibbler do business.

—T. K. Marion of Leigh was here Thursday and purchased of Charles Taylor a carload of cattle to fatten.

—Standard Fusion Sheets are furnished by J. H. Gandy, Octagon supply just received. Call and get one.

—E. C. Hockenberger moved into his new, neat, commodious dwelling in the north part of the city one day last week.

—Mason Bell is going around with his left eye in a sling on account of getting some plaster in it Monday or last week.

—Mrs. Nellie Lynch was called from her school Monday by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Lynch, who lives on Shell creek.

—One hundred and twenty acres of land under the irrigation ditch for sale at a bargain. Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers.

—Wm. Schulz makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market. 1.

—The Literary department of the Woman's club will meet with Mrs. F. A. Rees on Saturday afternoon, Oct. 15, instead of Oct. 25.

—Chas. Minet had the plaster cast removed from his arm Monday, and expects to be able to use the injured member in about a week.

—County Attorney O'Brien was at Cheyenne, Wyoming, several days last week to visit with his brother Robert, who had been afflicted with liver trouble.

—Rev. Munro expects to hold church services in the Congregational church Sunday. This will be the first for many weeks during his long illness.

—J. S. French of this city is agent for the sale of irrigated lands in Idaho on the upper Snake river, $12.50 per acre, including perpetual water right.

—Charles Miner has had a recent letter from Capt. Kilian at Fort Riley, Kansas, in which he speaks of the good health of his family, and enjoyment of his life in the new position.

—Prof. Garlick has organized an orchestra of fifteen pieces which is now meeting regularly for practice and by the time the new opera house is completed will be in readiness to furnish music for that house.

—We have seen the frail infant, when the faint struggle for existence seemed almost ended, resuscitated and made strong by the use of WHITE'S CREAM VERNIFUGE. Price 25 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—There are thousands of people suffering untold torture from piles, because of the popular impression that they cannot be cured. T. A. BELLER'S BUCK-EYE PILE OINTMENT will cure them, and the patient will remain cured. Price 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. A. Heintz and Pollock & Co.

—Mrs. L. Gerrard entertained a few friends Thursday evening for her guest, Mrs. Boyd, of the Hawaiian Islands. Curios from that island were shown and talked over and refreshments served, consisting of Hawaiian dried fruit, etc. Mrs. Boyd is still in the city, on account of a mistake about her ticket.

—B. O. Jean, a helper in the U. P. round house, was struck on the head last Wednesday evening by a hand crane which slipped and fell. The skull was cracked in three places. He was taken to the hospital and is now getting along nicely. He has been here since April. His home is in Estes Park, Ind.

—Alta is coming to be the great forage crop for a large section of the west, especially for all the semi-arid belt. It has no equal as a feed, mattock, pork and honey maker whatever it will grow.

—When it comes to be abundant in Nebraska, a great stride toward the future welfare of the state will have been taken.

—The particulars have not as yet been received of the death of Peter Francis at his ranch near Brock, Utah, Monday night of last week, except that he was shot twice in the head by a stage driver named Russell, and that death was instantaneous. Mr. Francis was married to Miss Alice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Elston of this city, who has the sympathy of all her friends in her bereavement.

—John Elson, whose father had furnished money to attend school at the University, gave his fond parent the other day a check $200 as a gift, and those who don't know Mike as well as we do, might suppose there wasn't much negotiation about him, but we venture to say that this will be a very sore trial school to one of the biggest hearted men that has made those prairies a fit place for the abode of civilized people.

—Our new sample line of carpets and linoleums are here. We show the latest patterns of all grades of carpets and our prices are the lowest of any house in the city. A handsome rug, free with every carpet or rug, amounting to $15 or over. Before purchasing give us a call. No extra charge for sewing carpets. The Fair, Eleventh street.

—Under date of Heron, So. Dakota October 15, E. M. Thomas writes us that he is to move from there, but does not yet know where he will settle. He sends best regards to all his old friends.

—Rev. Becker of DeForest, Wisconsin, the new pastor of the Presbyterian church, has moved to the city with his wife and children, and they are at present with the family of W. W. McFayden.

—Mr. Morris of Brown county called Saturday at Journal headquarters. He looks a bit grayer than he did when he was the affable and very efficient private secretary of Senator Sanders in the early '80's. He evidently enjoys his life in the new position.

—Prof. Garlick has organized an orchestra of fifteen pieces which is now meeting regularly for practice and by the time the new opera house is completed will be in readiness to furnish music for that house.

—A very heavy rain Thursday morning was preceded and followed by cooler weather than had been the rule for several weeks. The gutters at the sides of the newly graded Tenth street showed in places a foot depth of water just after the rain.

—Wednesday last while adjusting a sewing machine used for stitching leather Wm. Schulz had the misfortune to lose the fore finger of his right hand caught in such a manner that the heavy needle passed through that member, causing a very painful wound which bled profusely for several hours.

—The names of possible appointees for judges and clerks of election should be furnished the clerk of the district court, and should be in by this Tuesday, the 15th, at appointments to be made by October 20. The law is now, and can be found in the session laws of 1881, a copy of which should be in every justice's office.

—We see, by the Fullerton Post, that on the 17th of September, at Chicago, Daniel Lord and Miss Sidney, were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Lord, many old-time friends here, in congratulations. Mr. Lord has business interests in Denver, Colorado, and Fullerton, Nebraska, with residence at Denver.

—A householder of the city suggests that if the city authorities require property holders to keep sidewalks free from mud and snow, what would be wrong in the city setting the example by cleaning the street and alley crossings? A man with team and scraper Friday on Tenth street cleared the crossing in about three minutes, and made a good job of it.

—Laundry stoves at Enders'.

—Gus G. Becker was in Omaha Monday on business.

—Dr. L. C. Voss, Homeopathic physician, Columbus, Neb.

—A carload of fine Colorado potatoes at Hulst & Adams' grocery.

—The Jerome case was still on hands Monday before Judge Grinnan.

—I. Illand, who was seriously ill with typhoid fever, is reported better.

—W. J. Bryan is advertised to speak in Fullerton the afternoon of Oct. 24.

—Mrs. Newman has declined to run for supervisor on the popular ticket.

—Mrs. Fred. Curtis is at St. Mary's hospital, where she underwent an operation.

—Mayor Regatz is in receipt of a package of Paris postal views from D. E. Thompson.

—The public library will be opened up in a room in the Barber block about Nov. 1, and a librarian put in charge, the room to be open to the public two days and two evenings in the week.

—Work on the Lehman building, an addition to the Thurston hotel, has been begun, a goodly portion of the brick wall for the basement having been completed last week. Chas. Davis has the contract.

—The Union Pacific company immediately after the fatal accident to Mr. Wagner (herefore noted in this Journal), fixed the track so as to prevent such an accident in the future, if possible.

—Miss Buchta and Mr. Roninger of David City visited Mrs. Ernest Dusell Monday on their way to Kearney, where they will attend the Roberts grand lodge meeting. Mrs. Jenkins and H. J. Hudson will attend from Columbus.

—Scott and Echo's forces of men last week worked until 10 o'clock nearly every night and one night all the night long, to hurry up matters. Hardy & Lund's force worked Saturday night under the electric lights till 2 a.m. Sunday.

—A "witch in time saves nine," and a dose of BALLARD'S HORSEHOUND STURP; at the beginning of a cold will save you many weary hours and even days of distressing and harassing cough.

—Dennis Sullivan attended the Broth school of Railroad Trainmen association, which met in Omaha Sunday.

—Two new dwelling houses for sale on the installment plan, a bargain for some one.

—Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers.

—Miss Anna Kroeker is unable to teach on account of sickness and Miss Gertrude Whitmoyer is taking her place.

—The most popular hats for girls are the Anglesey and the new Mexican, just arrived from Chicago. J. C. Fillman.

—D. N. Miner has just completed the carpenter work on a virtually new dwelling on the Dickinson farm east of the city.

—Rudolph Kummer who has had an attack of appendicitis, is improving. He shows great vigor for a man of his age.

—Miss Nellie Lynch was called from her school Monday by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Lynch, who lives on Shell creek.

—One hundred and twenty acres of land under the irrigation ditch for sale at a bargain. Becher, Hockenberger & Chambers.

—Wm. Schulz makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and uses only the very best stock that can be procured in the market. 1.

—E. C. Hockenberger moved into his new, neat, commodious dwelling in the north part of the city one day last week.

—Mason Bell is going around with his left eye in a sling on account of getting some plaster in it Monday or last week.

—Mrs. Nellie Lynch was called from her school Monday by the serious illness of her father, Mr. Lynch, who lives on Shell creek.

—One hundred and twenty acres of land under the irrigation ditch for sale at a bargain.